

Lawney Donaldson Community Builder Award

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY:

Lawney Donaldson may not be a household name to you – unless you're one of his six Little Brothers and their families. For more than forty years, Lawney was selflessly committed to helping children reach their potential by simply just being there for them. The impact of Lawney's legacy is not best measured in dollars and cents, but rather in the strengthened social fabric of our community. Six young children transforming into confident, concerned, and motivated young men is a remarkable thing and our community is immeasurably better because of it. People like Lawney are the unsung heroes of our community. They do what they do for their community not because they have to, but because they can. This annual award will forever recognize an individual, or company that is equally committed to quietly building a better community for all of us.
